

FALL 2004

Inside moods[™]

understanding

Mood disorders in simple terms

A basic description of the types of mood disorders.

Test your mood

A self-test to help determine if you might be suffering from depression.

Ask the pharmacists

Medication questions about mood disorders.

Ask Ron Ellis

Ron answers questions submitted by our readers.

I am only one person

Understanding elders and loneliness.

How does spirituality affect depression

What spirituality is and how it assists us in healing.

S.A.D.

Seasonal Affective Disorder – are you affected?

Women on a roller coaster ride

Perimenopause–hormonal imbalances and mood.

Big blue funk

A poem written for children about depression.

Body and soul

How we view our bodies and why.

teen talk

Depression or adolescent angst?

How to tell the difference between depression and adolescent angst.

healthy living

Good mood menus – holiday menus

The ins and outs of vitamin B12 and healthy holiday menus.

“An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure”

Safe snow shovelling techniques.

Yoga to relieve headaches

A posture that will relieve headaches.

your stories

She survived

How Nancy survived BPD even though she was considered a “throw away” patient.

She was just 17

A student’s story about depression and bulimia–how she found her way and recovered from her horrific illness.

research

Wireless technology used to monitor mood

A technology used to monitor mood disorders for research.

Depressed? New advances in preventing relapse

A new study on the effectiveness of various approaches to relapse prevention.

Neurofeedback

A cutting edge technology for depression.

workplace wellness

Are you covered?

WSIB’s new traumatic mental stress policy.

Middle managers most vulnerable to mental health problems

The results of a survey of 16 Canadian CEO’s that was commissioned by the Global Business and Economic Roundtable on Addiction and Mental Health.

peer to peer - A column offering support and empowerment resources - Classified ads and Upcoming events

bookshelf - The editor’s/readers’ choice of books